FULL MEMBERS

DEFINITION

Service and Conservation Corps

Any unit of government or any private or quasi-public, not-for-profit organization operating a crew-based Service or Conservation Corps. The Corps Network defines a Corps as a comprehensive youth development and service program that engages young people in crew-based service to their community.

Individual Placement Program

Any unit of government or any private or quasi-public, not-for-profit organization operating an Individual Placement Program with a conservation or environmental focus.

Emerging Corps

Any youth program that is in the process of developing a Service and Conservation Corps program but has yet to fulfill all five membership criteria. Programs are only permitted to remain in the Emerging Corps category for two consecutive fiscal years.

MEMBERSHIP CRITERIA*

- Engage Corpsmembers between the ages of 16 to 25.
- Organize their Corpsmembers in crews or teams and assign a supervisor to serve as a mentor and role model, OR, organize individual Corpsmembers in a cohort model and promote esprit de corps through intentional efforts to create shared experience among members.
- Have a defined program model that provides growth opportunities to its Corpsmembers through a combination of intentional development activities that include education/training, career readiness, and supportive services.
- Have a defined period of full-time service for their Corpsmembers that is either paid or provides a stipend/living allowance.
- Have have as a central element of their mission the goal to provide service to the community.

* Emerging Corps do not need to meet all criteria, but must have an action plan to do so

APPLICATION PROCESS

- Candidate Organization completes Membership Application.
- Corps Network Staff reviews application and provides recommendation to Corps Council based on criteria above.
- Corps Council gives final approval for Membership.

A Note on Full Membership:

An organization can be both a Service and Conservation Corps Member and an Individual Placement Program member if they operate both crew-based and individual placement programs.

AFFILIATE MEMBERS

DEFINITION

Any organization that is interested in promoting, assisting and/or operating programs similar to Service and Conservation Corps, or interested in providing satellite sites or subgrantees access to The Corps Network's AmeriCorps Health Insurance.

MEMBERSHIP CRITERIA

No Membership Criteria - just payment of dues and completed membership application.

Our Affiliate membership includes, but is not limited to:

- National Non-Profits
- State Service Commissions
- Governmental/Related Agencies
- Regional Corps Associations

APPLICATION PROCESS

Complete and submit Affiliate Application, which is then reviewed by TCN staff.

AMERICORPS BASIC MEMBERS

DEFINITION
