Corpsmember Experience

Sending the Right Signal Workshop

This workshop helps organizations examine the signals they are sending that divide and negatively impact us. We create a person-centered, safe learning environment, where no one is judged or influenced.

Racial Equity Certification

Online learning course that looks to help professionals understand the root of racism and become better prepared to address biases.

Corpsmember Liberation and Leadership Foundational Elements Workshop

Looks to provide staff with the foundational knowledge, understanding, and purpose of Corpsmember Liberation and Leadership.

Corpsmember Liberation and Leadership Workshop

Looks at the development of the "whole person." This workshop seeks to provide individuals with the insights and strategies to consciously distinguish and choose the practice of empowerment over disempowerment.

Corpsmember Liberation and Leadership Self-Guided Modules

These lessons are designed to further build on and support the Corpsmember Liberation and Leadership workshop, and strengthen our continuing focus on Corpsmember Engagement.
