Celebrating 40 Years We Invite Your Support

The Corps Network's National Conference is the largest annual gathering of Conservation, Climate, and Service Corps programs. The Conference unites people from across sectors and throughout the country who are connected by a common goal to support America's greatest resource: our young people. Attendees include hundreds of motivated professionals working in national service, government, job training, conservation, lands management, and youth development.

#CorpsCon25 will be a celebration of The Corps Network's 40th anniversary. Join us to be inspired by discussions about what opportunities lie ahead for the Corps community. Urban Wood Career Pathway

Conservation Corps of Long Beach (CCLB)
With a $1 million CAL FIRE grant, CCLB partnered with the City of Long Beach to put Corpsmembers to work removing 1,000 dead or dying trees and replacing them with 2,000 healthy trees. This program also included an urban lumber salvage apprenticeship program.

Sound to Summit

Northwest Youth Corps
This program engages teens from urban communities in the South Puget Sound to serve locally, as well as at national parks like Mt. Rainier and Olympic. S2S combines urban and backcountry programming, introducing new communities to our public lands and advancing environmental justice.

Bia Ogwa

Utah Conservation Corps
In collaboration with the Northwestern Band of the Shoshone Nation, the Corps is conducting long-term restoration projects along Bia Ogwa (Bear River), the site of one of the worst indigenous massacres in US history. This project aims to increase climate resiliency and restore the habitat to a state similar to when it was inhabited by the Shoshone Tribe.
